Mrs. Lois Wright,

We all remember how hot it was the night of June 17th, 1948, when we got our S. H. S. diplomas; and the next morning, sitting on the same stage for the last time as a class.

We wondered "What now?" and started our path to look at the yawning void of the future.

Our first class reunion was held July 25th, 1953, at the Cochran House (which was torn down). The second was on July 19th, 1958, at Lena's Kemah Lodge (which burned down) with 25 class members present.
