Our commencement exercises should be dignified occasions during which we try to maintain an appropriate attitude, stressing the scholastic and academic decorum of such a program. Please cooperate with us and set a good example for the graduates. Please avoid inappropriate responses, shouting, whistling, and behavior which takes from the dignity of the occasion, embarrasses certain graduates, is not a good example, and detracts from the enjoyment of the majority of the spectators. not a good example, and detracts from the enjoyment of the majority of the spectators.
